and stood at sorrowful attention while the solemn pageant passed.

All the members of the immediate family of the dead followed the body to its final resting place. Capt. Frank Schley, eidest son, reached Washington this morning from Denver. With the family group also were Admiral and Mrs. Casey, both lifelong friends of Admiral Schley and his wife.

Preceding the public services at the church at 2 o'clock, the Rose Croix services of the Scottish Rite Masonstwere held at the Schley residence. These were strictly private, and were conducted by Evangelist Chapter, Rose Croix, Francis A. Sebring, wise master.

ducted by Evangelist Chapter, Rose Croix, Francis A. Sebring, wise master. It was at the express wish of Admiral Schley that the Masons took an active part in the funeral. A special session of B. B. French Lodge, No. 15, was held at 1:39 o'clock and the Masons of that lodge met the body at the church After the rites at St. John's the body was in the keeping of the Masonic fraternity until its commitment to the earth at Arlington.

Taps Sounded.

hTen came a salute at the grave by a company of marines, after which "Taps"-that final bugle ccall that folds the earthly tent of all those who have died in the service-was heard.

Chaplain George L. Bayard assisted the Rev. Dr. Smith in the services at the grave, these rites being independent of those by the Masonic fraternity.

Record Of Schley Termed Greatest In American Navy

Characterizing the record of Admiral Schley as one of the most brilliant ever attained by an officer of the American navy, the Army and Navy Union organizations of the District last night adoptresolutions in which the death of the sea hero was lamented. Copies of the resolutions not only will be sent to every garrison of the organization in the country, but an engraved copy will be sent to Mrs. Schley and other relatives.

The meeting of the Washington garrisons was held at Costello's Hall and was the largest attended gathering in months. Many members of the Roosevell and Barry garrisons, which have heen without charters for months, who served on board the ships commanded by Admiral Schley during the Spanish-American war, were present. They told of his work as a sailor and of his love for his work.

Special Resolutions.

The seamen members of the garrisons, many of whom were closely associated with the dead naval officer, throughout the conflict with Spain, will draft a special set of resolutions to be forwarded to Mrs. Schley and to the Navy Department. The department will be requested to place the resolutions among its official records. The meeting of the two garrisons last action on the death of Admiral Schlev. This was the first business of the meeting.

Following the adoption of the resolu-tions, the members voted to ask for new charters for the two garrisons. William H. Roach, department commander, who was present and addressed the veterans, declared the other garrisons of the District will welcome the return of Roosevelt and Barry garrisons.

Will Attend Funeral.

A petition for new charters was signed by E. G. Burch, Charles W. Blush, Jeremiah A. O'Hara, William A. Kicke, Van Zahm, A. C. Brooacker, and Noel

A. Martin.

The petition is to be forwarded to national headquarters at Erie, Pa., today.

Members of the various garrisons of the Army and Navy Union me at Costello's Hall at 1 o'clock this afternoon and marched to St. John's Church to attend the funeral services.

BANKS OF FLOWERS SENT AS TRIBUTES TO DEAD ADMIRAL

Church Scenes Of Beauty And Fragrance.

Men and women of wealth and culture, officers of the army and of the illes among the larger of the remembrances, bearing the card of Admiral and Mrs. Casey, was the visible manifestation of the loss that the blind admiral of the United States Navy suffered in the death of Winfield Scott Schley,

Admiral Casey and Admiral Schley

Admiral Casey and Admiral Schley were middles together. More than that, had they been ardinary seamen instead of men destined for the quarterdeck, they would have been called "bunkles." And the friendship which began early in their careers lasted until Admiral Schley "went ashore." Admiral Casey is blind. Often it was Admiral Schley who accompanied him on his walks, guiding him and living over with him the early days of their naval life. Hardly less imposing are the floral of-
